

Party Bag Red

A bag to fit three people

Which team is the fastest? A very funny take on the already hilarious hexathlon sack race - that is what describes these party bags included in the JB collection best. The item consists of no less than three bags sewn together, which means three participants have to stick together as a team and hop to the finish line as fast as they possibly can. If that doesn't provide a sense of teambuilding, cooperation and above all a lot of old-fashioned fun, what will? Including party bags in your collection allows you to offer a more varied product range for teambuilding events, bachelor festivities or kid's parties - or for any type of hexathlon your customers want to organise.

Super easy, super fun

It goes without saying a 'party sack race' is a super fun part of a hexathlon. All your customer has to do in organising a festivity, is take the large trouser-shaped bags that fit three people side by side out of the transport cover we have conveniently included. The bag-pants are available in red and blue.

Premium quality by JB and a 5-year warranty to boot

All hexathlon items by JB have several reinforced tension points and are multiply stitched. These party bags are, therefore, no exception and because the bags are made of strong, high-quality PVC they are durable and easy to keep clean as well. In addition, we provide a 5-year warranty for all rental items from our extensive collection and we have our own repair service to boot.

Purchase these mega-sized party pants, which are guaranteed to bring many a hilarious moment. They are fun and a real bag of laughs!

JB: 15,000 enthusiastic customers in 15 years
