Set 0-9

Buy individual grades for our IPS school board

At JB Inflatables you can buy individual grades for the IPS school board. You can use these numbers in this interactive educational game. You hang the numbers under IPS spots. You can do all kinds of math exercises. Very fun and educational! Use them for a special, interactive lesson. Or for an exciting math game with friends or colleagues. With these grade sheets for IPS education, you can go in many directions!

Educational IPS game

An educational interactive play system is a variation of the popular IPS system. An educational IPS game is fun and educational. By means of questions or assignments, your knowledge will be tested in areas such as language and math. A cool addition to the already existing IPS system, which provides even more experience when you play a game with sound, light and game elements. An inflatable playground with an interactive game is always and everywhere a success. A real crowd-pleaser at parties and events. And now also in every learning environment.

At JB Inflatables you buy high-quality Interactive Playsystems

At JB Inflatables we always go for the highest quality. So we only work with the very best materials. In addition, our professionals are ready to answer your questions and give you sound advice. Do you want to know something about the IPS system? Would you like advice on renting out an inflatable attraction? Or has something unexpectedly broken on your inflatable? Our employees are ready for you!
