

Face Painting Tent

Why state the obvious: it is face painting time

Whether your customer is hosting a kids' party, a business opening or open day, a neighbourhood party or a sports tournament, trade fair or any other event: nothing excites children more than seeing a face painting tent. It goes without saying your customer wants to offer the best possible accommodation for the make-up team in a place that stands out. It is, therefore, for good reason this inflatable make-up tent is part of the JB inflatable collection: it is a winner. Colourful, striking, spacious and with an option to close the front to guarantee the face painting can continue in all weathers.

This face painting tent is all set and ready within 5 minutes

Even if your customer has to set it up all alone, 5 minutes is all it takes – and an easy job as well with the user manual provided. JB would not be JB if we did not supply the complete package, which means we also conveniently include the blower, anchoring materials and transport bag. Browse all inflatable tents available, which include a balloon tent, an après ski hut and a clown arena.
